

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE UNIVERSITY
 SCHOOL of MUSIC
GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP IN PERCUSSION

Responsibilities

Percussion graduate assistants are afforded the opportunity to collaborate with every area within the School of Music, including: marching/athletic bands, percussion ensemble, steel band, wind ensembles, and orchestra. Responsibilities are comprised of (but are not limited to) instructing the drumline and front ensemble in the Lumberjack Marching Band, instructing the percussion methods course, teaching lessons to music majors and non-majors, conducting and coaching the percussion ensemble, and coaching and coordinating the SFA "Jacks of Steel" steel band. Work loads include up to 20 clock hours per week and a 9-month stipend (approximately $9,200). For more information about the audition process or the percussion GA, please contact Dr. Brad Meyer, Director of Percussion Studies, meyerbe@sfasu.edu (936) 468-1233.

The School of Music at SFA

With approximately 400 enrolled undergraduate and graduate students, the School of Music at Stephen F. Austin State University is a thriving community of musicians and scholars. The various fields of study offered include music education, performance, conducting and theory/composition. With a wide variety of performance opportunities and a central location between Houston and Dallas, SFA provides an ideal setting for pursuing graduate studies in music.
